KWA Annual Showcase – Lower Kaskaskia Stakeholders, Inc.
Fayetteville to the Mississippi

You are invited to attend the Kaskaskia Watershed Association, Inc. (KWA) Showcase, hosted by Lower Kaskaskia Stakeholders, Inc. to be held September 8, 2017 at Water Street, Inc. in Evansville, IL. This event will provide people the opportunity to learn first-hand about the Kaskaskia River from Fayetteville to the Mississippi River. Registration and lunch begins at 11:00 a.m. There is a $20.00 fee covering the cost of lunch, refreshments, prgram, etc. Immediately following lunch, you will enjoy approximately a three (3) hour tour on the Kaskaskia River. The barge size limits the capacity to 300 register early.

Ed Weilbacher, President
Kaskaskia Watershed Association, Inc. (KWA)

The Kaskaskia Watershed Association, Inc. (KWA), the Lower Kaskaskia Stakeholders, Inc. (LKSI) and the US Army Corps of Engineers welcome's everyone to the 17th Annual Showcase. This year's theme is "KASKASKIA RIVER – Past Dreams & Future Visions" We will highlight past accomplishments, new facilities, and future visions of the Kaskaskia River. In 2016 the river was named the 8th largest little Inland River Port in the Nation and Carlyle Lake is celebrating 50 years.

On behalf of Lower Kaskaskia Stakeholders, Inc. (LKSI) it is my pleasure to invite you the lower reach of the beautiful Kaskaskia River from Fayetteville to the Confluence with the Mississippi River. This will be LKSI's fifth showcase. I encourage you to register early, bring your camera & binoculars and enjoy the beauty of the Kaskaskia River.
